

01
APR.

Digital tools & methods

13:00 Welcome and introduction. Anna Dahlgren & Pelle Snickars.

13:15 – 14:00 Katrin Glinka, Humboldt-University Berlin:
"Digital Technologies in Museums: A Field of Interdisciplinary Research"

14:00 – 14:45 Tom Cramer, Stanford University:
"IIIF & the Future of Interoperable, Digital Cultural"

14:45 – 15:15

Coffee

15:15 – 16:00 Stuart Dunn, King's College London:
"Measuring the invisible: digital tools and methods for the documentation of movement"

16:00 – 16:30 Concluding panel and discussion.

The seminar is free of charge. However registration is required to the Centre for Digital Humanities at the website of Gothenburg University.

FREE ADMISSION ▶ Time and place: 1 April 13:00 – 15:00, Humanisten, Renströmsgatan 6, Lecture Hall J222.

DIGARV seminar digarv.se

