

27-28
APRIL

Digital Sustainability

An open to all seminar hosted by GRIDH, University of Gothenburg and the research programme DIGARV - aimed at promoting the digitisation and availability of cultural heritage collections - funded by the Swedish Research Council.

Thursday 27/4

13.15 Introduction

Cecilia Lindhé, Pelle Snickars
and Anna Näslund Dahlgren

13.30 Annet Dekker, University of Amsterdam

"Please put it somewhere safe"

14.30 Steven Gonzales Monseratte, MIT

Clouds for Tomorrow: Remaking Digital
Ecologies for a Sustainable Future

15.30 Coffe break

16.00 Malin Thor Tureby, Malmö University

Ethical aspects of (not) digitizing vulnerable collections

Friday 28/4

09.00 Carina Westling, Bournemouth University

The shadow side of software infrastructures'

10.00 Klas Grinell, Göteborgs stad

Digital relations, democracy and (un)controllability

11.00 Concluding panel

12.00 lunch

Free Admission • Time and Place: 27-28 April,
Humanisten, Renströmsgatan 6, Lecture Hall J222

Please register here:

www.gu.se/evenemang/digital-sustainability

UNIVERSITY OF
GOTHENBURG

GRIDH: Gothenburg
Research Infrastructure
in Digital Humanities

DIGARV
digarv.se